

Dear Mo -

If you have many more birthdays, you'll soon be as old as Big mo. Rody and I want you to put this check for $100 into your bank account. Do you know why?

Because we love you so much, and because you are such a fine boy. Have a good birthday party with your friends, and practise your song on the ukelele -- and don't forget to write a verse.

Much love and
Happy Birthday
Big mo
