

Monday morn.

Dear Harry,

Your letter cheered me no end.

I'm glad you got home safely and everything is okay with your parents, etc.

I'm especially happy that you feel the same about us for I do too! This week is pretty hard to live through. I never knew I could miss anyone so much -

Keep me painting - I I inspired that I feel pretty wonderful -

although - maybe it's because we're apart and I'm not there - I hope not.

I told you I hadn't been painting but the ambition is still there - With my relatives here. there has been little time for it. Perhaps I can start in this week.

You know, sorry - while we were so busy talking about being sexually compatible, naturally things wouldn't work out,

I agree we must stop talking + worrying - + just let things happen - (which was really my theory before we ever started going together, I came across an article on making marriage work and it said the sexual adjustment comes last anyway. So I don't think we should feel badly - our interests are so much the same - (I comes first - article said) and socially we will just have see how we get along.

But sorry right now I can think of nothing more wonderful than being in your arms. I'm starved for you so hurry back - let me know what train to meet - if possible.

About Barnes. Mother will probably take me out - since I have to be there at 9:00 am. but I will see you as soon as you get there - if not before - oh well - will see.

Hope you are enjoying your visit home -

See you soon -

With much love
Nancy
